

2016 SEASON REVIEW

San Diego Padres Communications Department • 100 Park Blvd., San Diego, CA 92101 • (619) 795-5000

All Padres information is available at <http://padrespressbox.com>

LIGHT ON THE L, NOT ON THE THRILL: Wil Myers had a career season, hitting .259 (155-for-599) with 29 doubles, four triples, 28 home runs, 94 RBI and 99 runs scored to go along with 68 walks, 28 stolen bases and a .797 OPS (.336 OBP, .461 SLG).

- Became the first Padre in team history to post a season with 25-or-more doubles, home runs and stolen bases and was one of just three in the Majors in 2016 to post those numbers this season, joining Mookie Betts (42 doubles, 31 homers, 26 stolen bases) and Mike Trout (32 doubles, 29 home runs and 30 stolen bases).
- Myers was named to his first career National League All-Star team in 2016, hitting .286 (97-for-339) with 19 doubles, two triples, 19 home runs, 60 RBI and 61 runs scored with 15 stolen bases and an .873 OPS over 87 games in the first half of the season.
- Myers started the game for the National League team, batting cleanup as the designated hitter and going 1-for-3 with a double in the NL's 4-2 loss to the American League.
- At home in 2016 he hit .306 (93-for-304) with 20 doubles, two triples, 18 homers, 58 RBI and 60 runs in 80 games, compared to .210 (62-for-295) with 10 home runs and a .633 OPS in 77 games on the road.
- He set Petco Park single-season records in several categories, including hits (93), home runs (18), RBI (58) and runs (60), along with a .306 average that ranked tops among all players with at least 250 at-bats in a single season in Downtown San Diego.
- Enjoyed his best month of the season in June when he was named National League Player of the Month after hitting .327 (32-for-98) with 10 doubles, 11 home runs, 33 RBI and 25 runs scored in 26 games.
- His 33 RBI in June led all Major League players, as did his 21 extra-base hits while his 75 total bases led all National League players.

MAN WITH THE WINNING HAND: Brad Hand posted a career season for the Padres, going 4-4 with a 2.92 ERA (29 ER, 89.1 IP) and 111 strikeouts against 36 walks while holding opponents to a .195 (63-for-323) opponents average in a Major League-leading 82 relief appearances.

- His 82 appearances were the second-most ever by a Padres reliever in a single season, behind only Craig Lefferts' 83 outings in 1986.
- His 111 strikeouts on the season were tied with Trevor Hoffman (1996 and 1997) for the third-most ever in a single season by a Padres reliever, behind only Lance McCullers (126 in 1987) and Rollie Fingers (113 in 1977).
- His 111 strikeouts were the fourth-most by any Major League reliever in 2016, behind only Dellin Betances (126), Andrew Miller (123) and Kyle Barraclough (113)...were the second-most by any left-handed reliever behind only Miller's 123.
- Began his season by being designated for assignment by the Marlins on 4/3 and later acquired off waivers by the Padres on 4/8, spending the rest of the season with San Diego.
- Per Fangraphs.com, his 1.6 WAR was the eighth-best mark among all qualifying NL relievers.
- Over a 30-game span from 6/21 - 8/23 he went 2-1 with a 1.47 ERA (5 ER, 30.2 IP) and 33 strikeouts against nine walks while holding opponents to a .154 (16-for-104) average.

AMERICA'S ALL-STAR CITY: In 2016 the Padres and the city of San Diego hosted Major League Baseball's 87th All-Star Game at Petco Park, the third time San Diego has hosted the All-Star Game and the first time the game had ever been hosted at Petco Park...previously held in San Diego in 1992 and 1978.

- The Padres had two players participate in the All-Star Game with Myers serving as the starting DH for the "visiting" National League squad and Drew Pomeranz working a scoreless inning of relief.

LET'S PUT ANOTHER SCHIMPF ON THE BARBIE: Ryan Schimpf made his Major League debut for the Padres in 2016 at the age of 28 and hit .217 (60-for-276) with 17 doubles, five triples, 20 home runs, 51 RBI and 48 runs scored to go along with an .869 OPS (.336 OBP, .533 SLG) in 89 games played.

- After signing with the Padres as a minor league free agent prior to the season he began the year with Triple-A El Paso where he hit .355 (59-for-166) with 17 doubles, 15 home runs and 48 RBI in 51 games before having his contract selected on 6/14 for his first career call-up.
- Over his first 13 Major League games from 6/14-29 he hit just .103 (3-for-29) before hitting .231 (57-for-247) with 20 home runs and 50 RBI from 7/1 through the end of the season.
- Of his 60 hits on the season, 42 were for extra-bases with 17 doubles, five triples and 20 home runs, a ratio of 69.5% of his hits going for extra-bases...that percentage was the highest among all Major League players with at least 25 hits in 2016.
- His 20 homers were the third-most all-time by a Padres rookie in a single season, behind Nate Colbert (24 in 1969) and Jedd Gyorko (23 in 2013).
- His 20 homers also were the second-most ever by a Padres second baseman in a single season, behind only Gyorko's 23 in 2013.
- He finished tied for fourth among all Major League rookies with 20 home runs, fourth among all NL rookies.

TALENT ACQUISITION: Over several transactions in 2016 the Padres accumulated a number of prospects into the organization, through trades as well as the amateur First-Year Player Draft and International signings.

- Of the Padres Top 30 prospects, per MLB.com's ranking at the end of the year, 19 played their first season in the organization in 2016.
- Cal Quantrill, the club's number one overall selection in the 2016 Draft, had two promotions in his first professional year, from the Arizona Summer League to the Northwest League to the Midwest League, making 12 starts total...in five starts for Tri-City he posted a 1.93 ERA, allowing just four earned runs in 18.2 innings with 28 strikeouts against two walks.
- Eric Lauer, one of the club's three first-round selections in the 2016 Draft, posted a 2.03 ERA in 10 minor league starts total this year, allowing a .211 average and nine walks against 37 strikeouts in 31.0 total innings.
- Hudson Potts, one of the club's three first-round selections in the 2016 Draft, in 59 games in the Arizona Summer League hit .280 with 12 doubles, three triples, one home run, 27 RBI and 42 runs scored with 10 stolen bases.
- Josh Naylor, who was acquired via trade with the Marlins in July, in 122 games total hit .264 with 29 doubles, two triples, 12 homers, 75 RBI and 59 runs.
- Anderson Espinoza, who was acquired from the Red Sox in exchange for LHP Drew Pomeranz on 7/14, at age 18 made 24 starts in A-ball, appearing in 25 games total, striking out 100 batters in 108.1 innings pitched.
- Chris Paddack, who was acquired from the Marlins in June, went 2-0 with a 0.85 ERA (4 ER, 42.1 IP) and 71 strikeouts against just five walks in nine total starts before having season-ending Tommy John surgery.
- The club also signed eight of MLB.com's Top 30 international prospects this signing period, including players such as INF Luis Almanzar (ranked No. 2 International prospect by Baseball America in the 2016 class), INF Gabriel Arias (ranked No. 4 by Baseball America), OF Jeisson Rosario (ranked No. 6 by Baseball America), C Alison Quintero (ranked No. 22 by Baseball America), INF Justin Lopez (ranked No. 28 by Baseball America), OF Tirso Ornelas (ranked No. 34 by Baseball America), RHP Michel Miliiano (ranked No. 48 by Baseball America) and INF Yordy Barley (ranked No. 50 by Baseball America).
- In addition, the Padres also signed several top Cuban prospects, including OF Jorge Oña (ranked the No.4 Cuban prospect by Baseball America), LHP Adrian Morejon (ranked the No.10 Cuban prospect by Baseball America) and RHP Ronald Bolanos (ranked the No.13 Cuban prospect by Baseball America).
- Following the season, the Padres will now have the number three-overall selection in the 2017 First-Year Player Draft.

2016 SEASON REVIEW

AY CHIHUAHUA! The El Paso Chihuahuas, the Padres' Triple-A affiliate, captured their first Pacific Coast League title in 2016.

- El Paso played Scranton/Wilkes-Barre RailRiders (Yankees) of the International League for the 2016 Triple-A Championship, falling short of the title.
- Key contributors to the PCL Championship for El Paso included Manuel Margot, Austin Hedges, Hunter Renfroe and Carlos Asuaje who hit a combined .306 with 20 RBI and 25 runs scored in El Paso's eight postseason games to capture the PCL title.

THE CALL UPS: Following the Triple-A Championship game, several El Paso players were tapped for their first career Big League call-ups, including INF Carlos Asuaje, OFs Manuel Margot and Hunter Renfroe and LHP Jose Torres...Padres C Austin Hedges, who made his Major League debut in 2015, was also recalled on the same day for his first Major League action of 2016.

- Renfroe led the group, hitting .371 (13-for-35) with three doubles, four home runs, 14 RBI and eight runs scored in 11 games before the end of the season to start his Big League career, earning National League Player of the Week honors during the final week of the season.
- Renfroe was also named the 2016 Pacific Coast League Most Valuable Player, hitting .306 (163-for-533) with 34 doubles, five triples, 30 home runs, 105 RBI and 95 runs scored in 133 games for El Paso, ranking tied for the PCL lead in homers.
- Carlos Asuaje was named the 2016 PCL Rookie of the Year, the second year a Chihuahua was named PCL ROY after Alex Dickerson won the award last year...in his first year with the Padres, Asuaje recorded 172 hits in 134 games, the most hits among all Triple-A players and fourth-most in minor league baseball...his 253 total bases ranked third in the PCL behind Renfroe's 297.
- Margot ranked tied for the PCL lead with 98 runs scored (also, Asuaje), hitting .304 with 30 stolen bases in 124 games played.
- Hedges hit .326 with 21 home runs and 82 RBI in just 82 games for El Paso, posting a .951 OPS on the year.
- Asuaje, Margot and Renfroe each participated in the 2016 Futures Game at Petco Park as well, during All-Star Week in San Diego.

THE "BOOK" STOPS HERE: Ryan Buchter had a career season in 2016, making his first career Opening Day roster out of Spring Training and going 3-0 with a 2.86 ERA (20 ER, 63.0 IP) and 78 strikeouts against 31 walks while holding opponents to a .160 (34-for-212) opponents average in 67 relief appearances.

- Recorded 78 strikeouts in 63.0 innings for a ratio of 11.14 strikeouts per 9.0 innings, tied for the 13th-best mark among all NL relievers in 2016.
- Went 1-0 with one save, a 0.77 ERA (2 ER, 23.1 IP), 33 strikeouts against 11 walks and a .135 (10-for-74) opponents batting average over the first two months of the season through May, over his first 25 outings of the year.
- Overall on the season he allowed a .160 (34-for-212) opponents average, the second-best mark allowed by any qualifying NL reliever (150 batters faced), behind only Kenley Jansen (.150), and fifth-best among all relievers, behind also Craig Kimbrel (.152), Aroldis Chapman (.158) and Andrew Miller (.160).
- Had one stint in the minors, being optioned on 8/20 to Triple-A El Paso, before being recalled on 9/1 for the remainder of the season.
- Worked scoreless ball in 59 of his 67 outings on the year...allowed a combined 13 runs, all earned, in three outings, posting a 1.03 ERA (7 ER, 61.0 IP) in his other 64 outings on the year.
- Per Fangraphs.com he posted a WAR of 1.1 on the season, 13th-best among qualifying NL relievers.

THE RULE 5 GUY: Luis Perdomo, who was acquired by the Padres via trade in the 2015 Rule 5 Draft prior to the start of the season, played the entire year in the Major Leagues for San Diego, going 9-10 with a 5.71 ERA (93 ER, 146.2 IP) and 105 strikeouts against 46 walks in 35 games, 20 starts.

- Over his first 16 games, two starts, of the season he went 1-2 with a 10.38 ERA (35 ER, 30.1 IP), allowing a .393 (55-for-140) opponents average, before turning around to go 8-8 with a 4.49 ERA (58 ER, 116.1 IP) and 81 strikeouts against 28 walks over his final 19 games, 18 starts, of the year, allowing a .284 (132-for-464) over that stretch.
- Over his final seven starts of the year from 8/21 through the end of the season he went 4-3 with a 3.64 ERA (19 ER, 47.0 IP) and a .254 (44-for-173) opponents average, highlighted by a complete game effort on 8/28 at Miami, allowing just one run on six hits in that start, the only complete game for the Padres in 2016 and first since 6/20/15 when Tyson Ross did so.
- Overall in his 20 starts on the season, the Padres were 11-9 in those starts...went 8-9 with a 4.85 ERA (63 ER, 117.0 IP) in his 20 starts.

SOLE, SOLE, SOLE: Yangervis Solarte had a career season in 2016, hitting .286 (116-for-405) with 26 doubles, one triple, 15 home runs, 71 RBI and 55 runs scored to go along with an .808 OPS (.341 OBP, .467 SLG) in just 109 games played.

- Missed some time while on the disabled list, first from 4/10-5/21, with a strained right hamstring...also missed some time due to a personal family matter.
- From 6/24 through the end of the season, over his final 75 games, he hit .299 (87-for-291) with 19 doubles, one triple, 11 home runs, 49 RBI and 41 runs scored to go along with an .823 OPS (.339 OBP, .485 SLG).
- He set career-highs on the season in home runs (15), RBI (71), average (.286) and OPS (.808), despite playing in just 109 games after playing in 152 games in 2015.
- Against right-handed pitching, the switch-hitter hit .291 (90-for-309) with 12 of his 15 home runs, while hitting .271 (26-for-96) vs. left-handers.
- Enjoyed his best month of the season in July when he hit .308 (28-for-96) with eight doubles, six homers, 17 RBI and 14 runs scored in 22 games...also had a nice September when he hit .355 (27-for-81) with five doubles, two homers and 17 RBI.

WHAT A STREAK: On 9/16 at Colorado the Padres dropped a ninth-inning lead to the Rockies, the club's first loss of the season when leading after eight innings and their first loss when leading after eight since July 2014.

- Prior to that game the Padres had won each of their previous 143 games when leading after eight innings, which at the time was the longest active streak in the Majors and the second longest such streak in team history...the Padres had a streak of 181-straight wins when leading after eight from July 1996 to April 1999 (7/27/96 - 4/27/99) per STATS.
- The Padres 143-game streak was the longest in the Majors since the New York Yankees had a 160-game win streak when leading after eight snapped earlier in 2016 (June 2014 - June 2016).

THE LONG BALL: The Padres in 2016 hit a franchise-best 177 home runs, passing the previous club record of 172 home runs by the 1970 Padres.

- At home in 2016 the Padres hit 83 home runs, a team record for most home runs hit in a season at Petco Park, passing the 75 home runs hit at home by the 2006 club (Petco Park opened in 2004).
- The Padres had just two seasons at Qualcomm (1969-2003) of hitting 83-or-more home runs, including a team home-record of 87 in 1992 and 1993.
- The Padres had 21 different players hit a home run in 2016, two shy of the team record of 23 different players from 2008 and 2013.
- Overall on the season there were 176 home runs total hit at Petco Park, with 83 by the Padres and 93 by opponents, the most ever in Petco Park history (previous 167 in 2006) and second-most ever in San Diego all-time behind 178 home runs at Qualcomm in 2001, per STATS.
- The club had a streak of hitting a home run in 25-straight games in 2016 from 6/28 - 7/27, the longest streak in franchise history and longest in the Majors since 2002 when the Texas Rangers homered in a Major League-record 27-straight games.

THE MAURER POWER: Brandon Maurer set career highs in several categories in 2016, including games pitched (71), saves (13) and strikeouts (72).

- He began the year by going 0-2 with a 6.97 ERA (24 ER, 31.0 IP) and 39 strikeouts against 18 walks with a .258 (32-for-124) opponents average in his first 32 games from 4/5 through 6/13, before finishing the year by going 0-3 with 13 saves in 15 chances, a 2.56 ERA (11 ER, 38.2 IP), 33 strikeouts against just five walks and a .221 (33-for-149) opponents average over his final 39 games from 6/15 through the end of the season.
- Enjoyed his best month of the season in July when he went 4-for-4 in save chances with a 0.73 ERA (1 ER, 12.1 IP) to go along with 11 strikeouts against just one walk and five hits allowed.
- Overall on the season he held hitters to a .238 (65-for-273) average.

A YEAR OF OPPORTUNITY: Several other Padres players made the most of their opportunities in 2016, including the following players:

- Alex Dickerson, after making his Major League debut in 2015, set career-highs in every category, hitting .257 (65-for-253) with 16 doubles, two triples, 10 home runs, 37 RBI and 39 runs scored to go along with a .788 OPS (.333 OBP, .455 SLG) in 84 games played.
  - After taking over regular playing time on 7/24, shortly before the trade of OF Melvin Upton Jr. to Toronto, Dickerson hit .267 (50-for-187) with 14 doubles, one triple, eight home runs, 27 RBI and 31 runs scored to go with an .832 OPS (.350 OBP, .481 SLG) over his final 57 games of the year.
- Travis Jankowski also set career-highs in nearly every offensive category in 2016, hitting .245 (82-for-335) with 13 doubles, two triples, two home runs, 12 RBI and 53 runs scored with 30 stolen bases in 131 games played.
  - Over a 59-game stretch from 6/21 - 8/30, after receiving regular playing time when Jon Jay hit the disabled list, Jankowski hit .268 (53-for-198) with 10 doubles, one triple, one home run, 34 runs scored and 24 stolen bases, playing primarily from the leadoff position with a .367 OBP in that span.
- Overall on the season when leading off an inning, Jankowski hit .306 (41-for-134) with a .392 OBP.
  - Jankowski's 30 stolen bases ranked tied for 10th-most in the Majors with Jose Altuve, Jarrod Dyson, Dee Gordon and Mike Trout...the Padres went 19-7 in 2016 in games where Jankowski recorded a stolen base.
- Christian Friedrich set career highs in nearly every pitching category in 2016, leading the Padres with a career-high 23 starts.
  - Friedrich went 3-1 with a 2.12 ERA (8 ER, 34.0 IP) and 31 strikeouts against 19 walks over his first six starts from 5/13 - 6/12, before going 1-5 with a 7.86 ERA (30 ER, 34.1 IP) over his next seven starts from 6/17 - 7/24...over his final 10 starts from 7/30 through the end of the season he went 1-6 with a 4.65 ERA (31 ER, 60.0 IP) and 43 strikeouts against 17 walks while holding opponents to a .240 (56-for-233) average.

2016 Summary

- Signed to a minor league contract by the Padres on 6/16 and assigned to Triple-A El Paso that same day after being previously designated for assignment by the Miami Marlins on May 31.
- Selected from El Paso on 7/17 and took a no-hitter into the seventh inning as he picked up the win in his Padre debut that same day vs. SF, working 6.1 innings total allowing three runs, two earned, all on one hit, a three-run pinch-hit home run by Conor Gillaspie.
- Did not allow his first hit until the first batter of the sixth inning in his win on 8/10 at PIT, working 7.0 shutout innings.
- Per ELIAS, with Jackson having two starts in which he did not allow a hit through his first 5.0 innings pitched, the only other Padres pitcher over the last 16 seasons to do so was Chris Young in 2006 (who had three such starts that season, 7.0 innings vs. COL on 5/30/06, 5.0 innings at PIT on 6/4/06 and 8.0 innings vs. PIT on 9/22/06).
- With his win on 7/17 vs. SF, he earned the win as a starting pitcher with his ninth different team, including the Dodgers, Rays, Tigers, Diamondbacks, White Sox, Cardinals, Nationals, Cubs and Padres...per ELIAS, that tied a Major League record, with the only other pitcher to win games as a starter for nine different teams being Mike Morgan and David Wells.
- Of his 13 starts for San Diego this season, seven were quality starts.
- Allowed 37 earned runs in six of his starts this year (12.33 ERA, 37 ER/27.0 IP), while allowing just 11 earned runs in his other seven starts this year (2.13 ERA, 11 ER/46.1 IP).
- Tossed 7.0 scoreless innings in his outing on 9/5 vs. Boston, striking out a season-high 11 batters, the most by a Padres pitcher this season and two shy of his career-high 13.
- Appeared in eight games, all in relief, for the Miami Marlins this season, going 0-1 with a 5.91 ERA (7 ER, 10.2 IP) while striking out seven and walking six.
- Made five total minor league starts this season between Single-A Jupiter of the Miami Marlins while on rehab and El Paso...went 0-2 with a 7.02 ERA (13 ER, 16.2 IP) while striking out 12 and walking seven.
- The Padres are Jackson's 11th Major League team to play for, also playing for the Dodgers (2003-05), Rays (2006-08), Tigers (2009), Diamondbacks (2010), White Sox (2010-11), Cardinals (2011), Nationals (2012), Cubs (2013-15), Braves (2015) and Marlins (2016)...per STATS, his 11 teams played for are the most among all currently active Major League players, with Marlon Byrd and Dana Eveland both playing for 10.

2016 Summary

- Made his first career Opening Day roster and played in 131 games, making 82 total starts this season with 77 in center field, three in left field and two in right field.
- His 30 stolen bases ranked tied for 10th in the Majors, eighth in the National League and second among all rookies, the fifth-most ever by a Padre in their rookie season.
- Also ranked tied for second in walks (42) and tied for seventh in runs scored (53) among all Major League rookies
- Reached base safely (via hit, walk or HBP) in 24 straight games from 7/31 - 8/26, the longest by a Padre this season and the second-longest by a National League rookie this season behind a 26-game hit streak for the Cardinals' Aledmys Diaz...hit .315 (29-for-92) with 19 runs scored, 11 walks and 11 stolen bases over that span.
- Became just the fourth Padres player to ever post a streak of reaching base safely in 24-or-more straight games during their rookie season and first to do so since Roberto Alomar had a 25-game streak in 1988 during his rookie campaign...only others to do so were Benito Santiago (34 in 1987) and Gene Richards (28 in 1977).
- When leading off an inning, he hit .306 (41-for-134) with 19 walks and an .773 OPS (.392 OBP, .381 SLG)...his .392 OBP when leading off an inning ranked 24th-best among qualifying Major League hitters, 16th in the NL and third among all Major League rookies.
- Hit .275 (69-for-251) against right-handed pitching compared to a .155 (13-for-84) average against lefties.
- In games in which he stole a base this season the Padres were 19-7 (.731).
- Hit .308 (32-for-104) with five doubles, one home run, three RBI, 11 walks and 18 runs scored over 27 games in August.
- Entered the 2016 campaign rated as the No. 6 prospect in the Padres organization by Baseball America.

2016 Summary

- Had a career season, setting career-highs in nearly every offensive category in 2016.
- Became the first Padre in team history to post a season with 25-or-more doubles, home runs and stolen bases and was one of just three in the Majors in 2016 to post those numbers this season, joining Mookie Betts (42 doubles, 31 homers, 26 stolen bases) and Mike Trout (32 doubles, 29 home runs and 30 stolen bases).
- Per STATS, Myers is one of only three Major League first baseman (based on primary position in season) all-time to have a season with 25 doubles, home runs and stolen bases, joining Joe Carter (27 doubles, 32 home runs, 31 SB in 1987) and Jeff Bagwell who did so twice in 1997 (40 doubles, 43 home runs, 31 SB) and 1999 (35 doubles, 42 homers, 30 SB).
- Named to his first career National League All-Star team in 2016, hitting .286 (97-for-339) with 19 doubles, two triples, 19 home runs, 60 RBI and 61 runs scored with 15 stolen bases and an .873 OPS over 87 games in the first half of the season.
- Myers started the game for the National League team, batting cleanup as the designated hitter and going 1-for-3 with a double in the NL's 4-2 loss to the American League.
- On 6/7 vs. Atlanta he hit a game-ending single to give the Padres a 4-3 win over the Braves, his second career walk-off hit and first since 8/3/13 for TB.
- At home in 2016 he hit .306 (93-for-304) with 20 doubles, two triples, 18 homers, 58 RBI and 60 runs in 80 games, compared to .210 (62-for-295) with 10 home runs and a .633 OPS in 77 games on the road.
- He set Petco Park single-season records in several categories, including hits (93), home runs (18), RBI (58) and runs (60), along with a .306 average that ranked tops among all players with at least 250 at-bats in a single season in Downtown San Diego.
- Enjoyed his best month of the season in June when he was named National League Player of the Month after hitting .327 (32-for-98) with 10 doubles, 11 home runs, 33 RBI and 25 runs scored in 26 games.
- His 33 RBI in June led all Major League players, as did his 21 extra-base hits while his 75 total bases led all National League players.
- Against right-handed pitching he hit .258 (118-for-457) with 24 doubles, four triples, 20 home runs and 72 RBI with a .791 OPS, while hitting .261 (37-for-142) with eight home runs and an .814 OPS vs. left-handers.
- With runners in scoring position he hit .280 (37-for-132) with seven home runs.

2016 Summary

- Got his first taste of the Majors, receiving his first career call-up on 9/21 and hitting .371 (13-for-35) with three doubles, four homers and 14 RBI in 11 games before the end of the regular season.
- Earned National League Player of the Week honors during the final week of the season, hitting .409 (9-for-22) with an NL-best 13 RBI during that week.
- In just his sixth Major League game on 9/27 vs. the Dodgers at Petco Park, he hit two home runs and drove in seven runs total...per ELIAS, since 1920, only two other players have driven in as many as seven runs in a single game within their first 20 games in the Major Leagues, including J.R. Towles for Houston in 2007 (eight RBI in his sixth game) and Jarrett Parker for San Francisco (seven RBI in his 14th game).
- The next day on 9/28 vs. Los Angeles he hit a home run and drove in four, becoming the first rookie to hit at least three home runs and 11 RBI over a two-game span since Fred Lynn did so in 1975, per ELIAS, the year Lynn became the first ever to win an MVP and Rookie of the Year award in the same season.
- His seven RBI game was just one shy of the Padres team record for most RBI in a single game, with eight by Ken Caminiti on 9/19/95 and eight by Nate Colbert on 8/1/72.
- His seven RBI were the most ever in a single game by a Padres rookie, breaking the previous record of six by Ryan Schimpf set earlier in the season on 8/12 at New York-NL.
- Made his Major League debut with a pinch-hit appearance on 9/21 vs. Arizona, drawing an international walk in his first career plate appearance.
- Received his first career start the next day on 9/22 vs. San Francisco, playing right field and going 2-for-4.
- Hit his first career home run on 9/24 vs. San Francisco off of Madison Bumgarner.
- Selected to the U.S. Roster in the 2016 Futures Game played at Petco Park, starting the game for the U.S. in right field, batting cleanup and going 0-for-2 with a walk.
- After spending the majority of the season with Triple-A El Paso where he helped the Chihuahuas win their first ever Pacific Coast League title, he was also named the 2016 PCL Most Valuable Player, hitting .306 (163-for-533) with 34 doubles, five triples, 30 home runs, 105 RBI and 95 runs scored in 133 games, ranking tied for the PCL lead in homers.
- Renfroe was also honored with PCL mid-season and post-season All-Star selections.
- In the first half of the season with El Paso he hit .335 (119-for-355) with 27 doubles, four triples, 21 home runs, 76 RBI and 68 runs scored in 84 games before hitting .247 (44-for-178) with seven doubles, one triple, nine homers, 29 RBI and 27 runs over his final 49 games in the second half for the Chihuahuas.
- Currently rated as the No. 3 prospect in the Padres organization by MLB.com and was also rated by Baseball America as the No. 3 prospect heading into the 2016 season.

- After signing with the Padres as a minor league free agent prior to the season, he began the year with Triple-A El Paso where he hit .355 (59-for-166) with 17 doubles, 15 home runs and 48 RBI in 51 games before having his contract selected on 6/14 for his first career call-up.
- Over his first 13 Major League games from 6/14-29 he hit just .103 (3-for-29) before hitting .231 (57-for-247) with 20 home runs and 50 RBI from 7/1 through the end of the season.
- Of his 60 hits on the season, 42 were for extra-bases with 17 doubles, five triples and 20 home runs, a ratio of 69.5% of his hits going for extra-bases...that percentage was the highest among all Major League players with at least 25 hits in 2016.
- Earned National League Rookie of the Month honors in July...just the fourth Padres rookie to win the monthly award and first since Josh Barfield in July 2006...also, Khalil Greene in April 2004 and August 2004 and Xavier Nady in May 2003.
- His 20 homers were the third-most all-time by a Padres rookie in a single season, behind Nate Colbert (24 in 1969) and Jedd Gyorko (23 in 2013).
- His 20 homers also were the second-most ever by a Padres second basemen in a single season, behind only Gyorko's 23 in 2013.
- He finished tied for fourth among all Major League rookies with 20 home runs, fourth among all NL rookies.
- Had three multi-homer games with two on 7/6 at Arizona, two on 8/12 at New York-NL and two on 8/19 vs. Arizona.
- Collected a career-high six RBI on 8/12 at New York-NL, at the time the most by a Padre in 2016 before Renfroe's seven RBI game in September...his six RBI that day was also, at the time, the most ever by a Padres rookie in a single game before Renfroe's seven.
- After receiving his first career call-up on 6/14, his 20 home runs from 6/14 through the end of the season were tied for the most in the Majors by a rookie, with Gary Sanchez also hitting 20 for the Yankees over that time...his 42 extra-base hits over that time ranked second-most by a Major League rookie behind only Corey Seager's 43 XBH over that span.
- His .869 OPS on the year ranked third-best among qualifying rookies from 6/14 through the end of the regular season, behind Trea Turner (.922) and Corey Seager (.886).
- His .315 isolated power on the year was the second-highest ever by a Padre with 300-or-more plate appearances behind only Greg Vaughn's .325 ISO in 1998...was the fourth-highest ever by a Major League rookie with 300-or-more plate appearances, behind Rudy York's .344 ISO

MINOR LEAGUE REVIEW

El Paso Chihuahuas (Triple-A) Pacific Coast League, 73-70, 1st+2.0

Manager: Rod Barajas (1st season, 3rd with org)
Ballpark: Southwestern University Park
Finished: 1st place in PCL Pacific Southern

Season Highlights

After defeating the Tacoma Rainiers (Seattle Mariners) in the Pacific South Conference finals, El Paso clinched their first Pacific Coast League championship with a 4-3 win in an 11-inning game at Oklahoma City (Los Angeles Dodgers), en route to the 3-1 series victory...it is the first title for a Padres Triple-A affiliate since 1988 and El Paso's first professional baseball championship since 1994.

El Paso advanced to the Triple-A National Championship Game in Memphis, Tennessee and lost 3-1 to the Scranton/Wilkes-Barre RailRiders (New York Yankees) of the International League in the winner-take-all contest, the first meeting between the Padres and Yankees affiliates since 1978, when the Yankees were affiliated with Tacoma and the Padres Triple-A team was the Hawaii Islanders (1971-1982).

LEAGUE LEADERS

The Chihuahuas offense was a juggernaut all season long...they led Minor League Baseball in batting average (.295) and hits (1,468) while leading Triple-A in home runs (156) and scoring the second-most runs (786)...defensively, El Paso's 54 outfield assists were the most by any team in Triple-A. El Paso's pitching staff led the PCL during the playoffs in ERA (2.96) and allowed just two home runs.

OF Hunter Renfroe led all Triple-A players in extra-base hits (69) and total bases (297) while ranking tied for first in home runs (30), second in RBI (105), tied for second in hits (163) and fourth in runs (95)...INF Carlos Asuaje led Triple-A in hits (172), tied for first in runs scored (98) and ranked second in triples (11)...OF Manuel Margot led Triple-A in triples (12) and outfield assists (18) and tied for first with teammate Carlos Asuaje in runs scored (98)...C Austin Hedges led all Triple-A catchers in home runs (21) and RBI (82) in just 82 games this season.

AWARDS & HONORS

OF Hunter Renfroe was named Pacific Coast League MVP and earned Player of the Week honors for the week of April 18-24...INF Carlos Asuaje earned PCL Rookie of the Year honors...OF Manuel Margot was named MVP of the PCL Playoffs after hitting .350 (14-for-40) with three doubles, three triples, a home run, two steals, eight runs scored and four RBI...C Austin Hedges became the first player since 2009 to earn back-to-back PCL Player of the Week honors for the weeks of June 20-26 and June 27-July 3 after hitting a combined .556 (25-for-45) with 10 homers and 28 RBI over the 12-game span, including a stretch of five consecutive games with a home run from 6/21-26...Renfroe, Margot and Asuaje also all participated in the 2016 Futures Game at Petco Park during All-Star Week in San Diego...RHP Daniel McCutchen earned Pitcher of the Week honors for the week of June 6-12...INF Ryan Schimpf earned Player of the Week honors for the week of May 30-June 5.
