BLUE JAYS MANAGER JOHN GIBBONS:

On Ryan Borucki

"He did what he's been doing all year. He doesn't give in a lot of times. He's got a few pop ups, a few fly balls. He's just a pitcher. He moves the ball around. He's gone up against some good teams. He's facing the good ones and he's been shutting them down. It's always tough to get that first win."

On Ken Giles' first outing with the Blue Jays

"I thought he looked great. He has a dynamite slider. I think he just hung one to (Ryon) Healy for a base hit, but other than that he was all good. It's never easy making your first appearance, but everyone wants to do well and get out there."
