SAN DIEGO MANAGER ANDY GREEN:

Overall thoughts

"It was good. For me, that was the best I've seen Bryan Mitchell. He played great today. It's really fun to see him taking some strides forward. I felt really good about him. The bullpen was great. Matt Strahm got in a dicey situation with that flare double down the line and was able to really step up and get out of that. For us, it was a good team win. A lot of good guys did a lot of good things. Edwin Díaz, probably the best reliever in baseball, to step up and score off of him in the ninth inning was great."

On Wil Myers

"For me, it was the best day I've seen from Wil in a while. The best hit probably all day was the line out to left field; that ball was crushed. Then the big hit of Díaz to win the game, of course. I was really pleased with what I saw. And at third base, he put in a lot of work, getting in early today before anyone else was around. He did a lot of really nice things today."
