- Went 2-for-5 with one RBI in the National League Wild Card Game at Arizona ... became the only player to appear in both the 2009 and 2017 postseason with the Rockies.
- Hit .221 (58-for-263) with 13 doubles, six home runs, 22 RBI, 30 walks and 64 strikeouts in the 74 games prior to the All-Star break ... in 62 games after the break, hit .314 (65-for-207) with 21 doubles, eight home runs, 35 RBI, 26 walks and 55 strikeouts.
- Batted .377 (29-for-77) in September with 12 doubles, six home runs, 16 RBI, 15 walks and 24 strikeouts ... led the National League in doubles and finished second in hits, second in average, first in on-base percentage (.484) and second in slugging percentage (.766).
- Recorded two home runs and a season-high four RBI Sept. 12 at Arizona ... it was his 20th career multi-home run game with the Rockies, the fourth-most in franchise history.
- Drew a walk-off walk Sept. 4 vs. San Francisco, his fourth career walk-off RBI (last: Sept. 26, 2015 vs. Los Angeles-NL).
- Hit his 202nd career home run with the Rockies on June 6 vs. Cleveland, passing Dante Bichette for the fourth-most in franchise history.
- Has recorded at least 10 home runs in all nine of his seasons with the Rockies, the second-most 10-plus home run seasons in franchise history, behind Todd Helton's 13 seasons.

2016: Was a NL All-Star for the third time in his career ... played 150 games, his second consecutive season of 150 games or more.

- Started in left field for the National League All-Stars, his third time starting the All-Star Game.
- Recorded 174 hits, his most since his career-high 197 hits in 2010.
- Recorded his 100th RBI of the season Oct. 1, his most since recording a career-high 117 RBI in 2010.
- Set a career high with 42 doubles ... became the 10th player in Rockies history to record 40 doubles and 25 home runs in a season.
- His fifth season of 25 or more home runs with the Rockies, tied for the third-most in franchise history.
- Hit two grand slams, June 26 vs. Arizona and Sept. 5 vs. San Francisco ... his six career grand slams with the Rockies are tied for the second-most in franchise history, behind Todd Helton's seven.

(C. GONZÁLEZ, continued)

- Hit his 200th Major League home run Aug. 27 at Washington off Yusmeiro Petit ... hit his 189th career home run as a member of the Rockies June 27 vs. Toronto, passing Troy Tulowitzki for fifth-most in franchise history.
- Recorded his 600th RBI as a Rockies player on Aug. 2, the sixth player in club history to reach the milestone.
- Recorded his 1,000th Major League hit April 20 at Cincinnati, a double off Raisel Iglesias.
- His career-high, 19-game hitting streak from July 18-Aug. 13 the longest by a Rockies player in 2016, tied for the second-longest hitting streak in the National League ... batted .361 (26-for-72) with 11 doubles, four home runs and 24 RBI during the streak.
- Hit a home run in four consecutive games May 28-31 and in three consecutive games June 26-28.

2015: Won his second career Silver Slugger after recording a career-high 40 home runs.

- His 40 home runs ranked third in the NL behind Nolan Arenado and Bryce Harper (each tied for first with 42 home runs).
- Hit 27 of his 40 home runs in the second half ... tied with Dante Bichette (1995) for the most second-half home runs in franchise history.
- Recorded six multi-home run games, all after July 24 ... had not had a multi-home run game since June 5, 2013 at Cincinnati.
- Had back-to-back multi-home run games on two separate occasions, July 26-27 and Sept. 2-3 ... was the second player in Rockies history to have back-to-back multi-home run games (Vinnie Castilla, July 7-8, 1995) ... was the first player in MLB since Jason Giambi (New York-AL) in 2005 to have back-to-back multi-home run games twice in a season.
- Was named NL Player of the Month for July after batting .386 (34-for-88) with 20 runs, seven doubles, 11 home runs, 24 RBI and eight walks ... the 11 home runs in July ranked first in the NL (second in MLB), and the 24 RBI were tied for first in MLB.
- Was named co-NL Player of the Week with Cole Hamels for the week of July 20-26 after batting .476 (10-for-21) with nine runs, five home runs, 11 RBI and two walks over that span.

2014: Was limited to a career-low 70 games and finished the season on the 60-day disabled list after undergoing surgery to repair a patellar tear in his left knee.

- Also had surgery to remove a tumor from his left index finger in June.
- Had two separate 10-game hitting streaks in 2014, the first beginning on Opening Day (March 31- April 11), the longest of his career to begin a campaign ... also had a 10-game hitting streak from April 28-May 8.

2013: Was selected to his second consecutive All-Star team in 2013 and recorded his fourth consecutive (and fourth career) season with 20 home runs and 20 stolen bases.

- Prior to the All-Star break, led the NL in home runs (25), slugging percentage (.610), extra-base hits (53) and total bases (216).
- Played just 19 games with 41 plate appearances after the All-Star break due to a sprained right middle finger.
- Started his second consecutive All-Star game after being elected by the fans for the first time.
- According to STATS, became the 15th player in Major League history, and the third active player (Carlos Beltran and Hanley Ramirez), to have four consecutive seasons with at least 20 home runs and 20 stolen bases.
- Had his second career three-home run game June 5 at Cincinnati, when he went 3-for-5 with three home runs and six RBI ... the six RBI also tied a career high at the time.

2012: Was named to his first career All-Star team and participated in his first career Home Run Derby after hitting .330 (104-for-315) with 61 runs, 19 doubles, four triples, 17 home runs and 58 RBI prior to the All-Star break.

- Became the first Rockies player with three consecutive seasons with 20 home runs and 20 stolen bases (2010-12).
- Had a home run in four consecutive plate appearances, May 30-31 vs. Houston ... was the first player to accomplish the feat since Albert Pujols, April 16-17, 2006, and the 22nd player to do it in MLB history.
- Earned his second-career Gold Glove in 2012 ... played the entire season as the Rockies left fielder after splitting time at all three outfield positions in the previous three seasons.

2011: Began his fourth season as the Rockies starting left fielder, then moved to center field in the middle of the season and finished the season as the primary right fielder.

- Was named the NL Player of the Week for Aug. 22-28 after hitting .481 (13-for-27) with two doubles, three home runs, 10 RBI, nine runs and a 1.422 OPS (.533 OBP, .889 SLG).
- Finished his second full season with at least 20 home runs and at least 20 stolen bases ... was the first Rockies player to reach the feat in back-to-back seasons and just the second Rockies player to have multiple 20/20 seasons (also: Dante Bichette).
- Was placed on the 15-day disabled list July 22-Aug. 6 with a strained right wrist he suffered after colliding with the center field wall.

2010: In what was his first full Major League season, led the Rockies in nearly every offensive category and carried a National League Triple Crown run into the season's final month; eventually becoming the fifth Rockies player to win the National League batting title.

- His .336 batting average (197-for-587) was 12 points higher than second-place Joey Votto (.324).
- Finished among NL leaders in several offensive categories, including hits (197, first), total bases (351, first), RBI (117, second), extra-base hits (77, second), slugging percentage (.598, second), OPS (.974, third), runs (111, third) and home runs (34, fourth).
- Was named the NL Player of the Week twice, first for the week of July 26-Aug. 1 then again for the week of Aug. 23-29.
- Recorded his first career cycle and the sixth in Rockies history July 31 vs. Chicago-NL ... finished the cycle by recording his first career walk-off home run to lead off the ninth inning ... according to ELIAS, González was the fifth player in MLB history to have hit a game-ending home run while hitting for the cycle in the same game.

2009: In his second Major League season, hit .284 with 13 home runs, 29 RBI and 16 stolen bases.

- Collected 10 hits and reached base safely 12 times in the NLDS vs. Philadelphia ... his 10 hits were the most for any player in Division Series play in 2009 (no other player had more than six hits).
- Hit his first postseason home run in Game 3, a game-tying home run off of Joe Blanton at Coors Field.
- Recorded a home run in four consecutive games, Aug. 16-19.
- Recalled from Triple-A Colorado Springs June 5 and remained with the Rockies for the rest of the season.
- Made his first start for the Rockies June 6 at St. Louis in center field.

2008: Was named the Oakland Athletics' top prospect by Baseball America after he was acquired from Arizona via trade, and made his MLB debut May 30 ... was acquired by the Rockies via trade in a four-player deal for Matt Holliday, Nov. 10.

- Made his MLB debut May 30 at Texas and went 2-for-3 with two doubles and one RBI.
- Hit his first career home run June 20 vs. Florida off of Mark Hendrickson.

2007: Spent most of the year at Double-A Mobile before earning a late-season promotion to Triple-A Tucson.

- Hit a combined .288 (144-for-500) average with 17 home runs and 86 RBI in 130 games.
- Named the Diamondbacks' top prospect by Baseball America following the season.

2006: Spent the majority of the season with High-A Lancaster before a late-season promotion to Double-A Tennessee for his first stint in Double-A.

- Led Arizona Minor Leaguers with 99 RBI while ranking fifth with 23 home runs ... hit .289 with 41 doubles and four triples in a combined 122 games.
- Led the California League with a .563 slugging percentage and ranked fourth in RBI (94) and extra-base hits (60).
- Recognized as a Baseball America High-A All-Star.
- Promoted to Tennessee Aug. 15 and played in 18 games.

2005: Was selected as the Midwest League's MVP and Prospect-of-the-Year ... also garnered Baseball America Single-A All-Star and Topps Midwest League Player-of-the-Year and Single-A All-Star honors.

- Ranked second in hits (158) and total bases (252), third in RBI (92), fifth in runs scored (91) and seventh in batting average (.307) in the Midwest League.
- Named the Arizona farm system's Player of the Month for June after batting .400 with four home runs and 18 RBI.

2004: Was tabbed by Baseball America as the third-best prospect in the Northwest League.

- Hit .275 in 14 games for Low-A South Bend before going on the disabled list with a fractured right wrist April 30-June 14.
- Returned from the disabled list June 18 with Single-A Yakima and hit five home runs in his first 11 games.

2003: Played for Rookie League Missoula and was selected by Baseball America as one of the top 30 prospects in the Arizona organization.

- Ranked second on the club in games (72), at bats (275), runs (45), total bases (111), triples (four) and stolen bases (12).
