Loss: Matt Shoemaker (2-2)

OAKLAND NOTES

- With the win, the Athletics improved their record to 58-25 dating back to June 16, which is the best record in the Major Leagues ver that span.
- The A's lowered their magic number to five to clinch a wild card spot...currently have a 6.0 game lead over the Tampa Bay Rays, who play tonight...they are currently 2.0 games out of the first AL Wild Card spot behind the Yankees, who play tonight.
- The A's accounted for 21 runs on the game, the most runs the A's have scored in a contest since June 18, 2000 at Kansas City...The 21 runs are tied for second in Oakland history.
- The 18-run margin of victory was second largest in Oakland history
- This is the third time in Oakland history the Athletics have scored five or more runs in an inning three times in one game (June 14, 1969 at Boston; Sept. 30, 2000 vs. Texas).
- Matt Chapman amassed his 24th double of the second half, which is now tied with Rajai Davis for the most doubles post all-star break in Oakland Athletics history.
- Stephen Piscotty clubbed his seventh homer of the month and now has 22 RBI in the month of September...he recorded his 85th RBI of the season in the bottom of the fourth inning, matching his career best... he leads the Majors in RBI for the month and is tied for first with seven homers.
- Marcus Semien tallied a career-high five RBI in the contest.
- Nick Martini clubbed his first career round-tripper in the seventh inning.
