OAKLAND MANAGER BOB MELVIN:

On Kendall Graveman's continued struggles:

"Yeah, you know, I thought when he got out of the first, you know he was in some trouble in the first and got out of it. I thought maybe that was a good sign. You know, struggled the next two innings. The fourth was probably his best inning. I know he felt the best about it, but at 95 pitches after 4 innings it's tough to send him back out there."

On if there's anything he can put his finger on with Graveman:

"It's just over throwing some. I think when he tried to early on to start pitching like he normally does, and then when you get into a jam you try to add a little extra. He's got to figure it out, he's important to us, he will."

On the offense doing everything they can to stay in the game:

"Yeah and we keep coming back, and we're scoring some runs. Similar to last night, we just can't hold them down. We're going to have to get some performances where we can hold them down some, and hopefully our offense keeps swinging the bat the way it has been."
