ROCKIES WALK OFF ON REDS

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. – The Colorado Rockies beat the Cincinnati Reds 3-2 Thursday afternoon at Salt River Fields, their third consecutive win and sixth consecutive one-run game.

With the game tied at two in the ninth, infielder Brendan Rodgers led off with a single. After moving to second on a sacrifice bunt, outfielder Sam Hilliard laced a 1-2 pitch down the left field line to score the winning run.

The Rockies came from behind to win after the Reds took an early 1-0 lead in the top of the first inning. Former Rockies farmhand Rosell Herrera singled, stole second base and came around to score on an RBI single by Reds catcher Devin Mesoraco.

Colorado countered in the bottom half of the fourth, scoring two after an RBI double from designated hitter Noel Cuevas and a RBI single by Rodgers.

Cincinnati tied the game at two in the top of the sixth after a Brandon Dixon RBI single off right-hander Ryan Castellani in the top of the sixth.

Kyle Freeland pitched three innings in his third start of the Spring and allowed one run on three hits with two walks and three strikeouts.

Rockies reliever Bryan Shaw made his second Cactus League appearance and pitched a 1-2-3 inning with three ground ball outs.

Colorado will play their third consecutive home game on Friday when they host the Cleveland Indians in a 1:10 p.m. contest at Salt River Fields at Talking Stick.
